DINOSAURS... FLYING MONSTERS... SUB-HUMAN APE-MEN...

There was a brushlike growth upon the branch up which I was climbing. I leaned around it in order to see what was beyond and nearly fell out of the tree in horror. A face was looking into mine! The eyes were bestial and ferocious, and as the creature opened its mouth to snarl I saw sharp, curved teeth. It was a human face—far more human than any monkey's I had ever seen!

Four white men, beset by danger from all sides, were ascending the unexplored headwaters of the Amazon. Deep in the heart of the jungle they found a prehistoric inferno. It was THE LOST WORLD, strange and frightening, filled with all the fury of the bloodiest, weirdest era the earth ever knew.

NOW a thrilling motion picture starring Claude Rains, Michael Rennie, Fernando Lamas, and Jill St. John. An Irwin Allen Production in CinemaScope and Color Deluxe. Released through Twentieth Century-Fox
