ADVERTISING AT RAILWAY STATIONS.

THE Proprietor of the "Bombay Gazette" Press having leased (among other privileges) from the Great Indian Peninsula Railway Company, and the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company, the exclusive right of advertising at all the Railway Stations belonging to these two Companies, is prepared to contract with parties desirous of posting Notices or Advertisements on the lines.

The announcements may be in English or in any of the Native Languages.

The advantages which Railway Stations present as a means of bringing intimations of all kinds before the public, have been demonstrated in England by the extensive use which is made by Advertisers, of every station, great and small, along every line in the United Kingdom.

Insurance Companies, Shipping Companies, Hotel-keepers, Merchants, Traders, and others who wish to force their business on the notice of the Public, all alike value the privilege of Railway Station Advertising.

There is no reason why the privilege should not be also specially valuable to Advertisers in India. Looking to the great and increasing number of Native Railway Passengers on the two trunk lines of Western India, native merchants, traders, &c., seeing that they have the privilege of advertising in their own language, would find the publication of their announcement at Railway Stations a decided means of extending their business.

And as nearly ALL TRAVELLERS ARRIVING IN INDIA NOW LAND AT BOMBAY, and proceed by the G. I. P. or B. B. and C. I. Railways to their destinations, placards exhibited at the different Stations on those lines are every day becoming more and more valuable as means of bringing the Advertisers' business to the notice of the Public.

Advertisers can select the Stations, on either line, at which they wish their Placards posted, and may advertise for any period that may be agreed on. The charges have been fixed on an extremely moderate scale to encourage Advertisers to make a liberal use of the new means now offering of making announcements known to the Public.

Placards, according to the taste of Advertisers, may be printed at the "Bombay Gazette" Press.

Advertisement to the First Edition.

In offering this book to the public, I wish to disclaim for it any other merit than that it is a careful, and, if not a complete, yet at all events, so far as it goes, an accurate digest of such information as I have been able to collect, by dint of hard reading and personal observation, concerning a city which I have known familiarly for the last fifteen years. I have avoided crowding the pages of the GUIDE with references; and I will only mention here, amongst the numerous works I have studied in order to obtain materials for this book, Aitchison's Treaties, Anderson's English in Western India, Heeren's Asiatic Researches, Mill and Wilson's History of India, Grant Duff's History of the Mahrattas, Orme's Historical Fragments, Forbes's Oriental Memoirs, Heber's Narrative, Hamilton's Hindostan, Milburn's Oriental Commerce, Macpherson's Annals of Commerce, Royle's History of the Cotton Trade, the Wellington Despatches, the Wellesley Despatches, Fryer's Travels, Ovington's Voyage to Surat, Carsten Niebuhr's Travels, Vincent's Periplus, Yule's Marco Polo, and, amongst other official papers, Warden's valuable Memoir on the Land Tenures of Bombay, the Bombay Administration Reports, especially that for 1872-73, and Dr. Hewlett's Census of Bombay.

For all the first four chapters of the GUIDE I am solely responsible. In compiling the "Description of the City of Bombay" I have been greatly assisted by Mr. Collett, of the Bombay Gazette, and to Mr. MacPherson, of the same office, I am indebted for the descriptions of the Festivals held in Bombay and of the Queen's Statue. I have also to thank many outside friends for generous and cordial help given to me in the preparation of what I hope will take rank as the standard "GUIDE TO BOMBAY."

I had proposed to give with the GUIDE a view of Bombay, but could not get one taken to afford a satisfactory representation of the city. I then tried to get a photograph of the Queen's Statue, the most exquisite work of art in Bombay, for the frontispiece; but, alas! the Statue is so surrounded with bamboo poles at present that the photographer could do nothing with it. I must, therefore, throw myself on the indulgence of the public, and ask them to forgive my breach of promise in this matter.

Advertisement to the Second Edition.

THE favourable reception given to the FIRST EDITION of this GUIDE by the Press and the Public has encouraged me to revise the book thoroughly and make it worthier of the good name it has won. Considerable additions have been made to the First Part, more particularly in the Historical and Descriptive chapters; and the whole of the Second Part has been completely recast. A friendly critic having remarked that the GUIDE contained no information on a point which chiefly interests visitors to Bombay, namely, how they are to get out of it, I have inserted in this Edition tables showing the proposed movements of the mail steamers for the year 1877, and the through services by rail between Bombay and other places in India. A good index is now prefixed to each Part of the GUIDE; and I trust that I have succeeded in making the book much more valuable as a work of reference, without greatly increasing its bulk.

I must again offer my acknowledgments to numerous friends for help which has materially lightened my labours.

Besides the authorities quoted in the First Edition, I should mention two books to which I am indebted for some interesting details of the history of Bombay during and shortly after the Portuguese occupation—Lafitau's Histoire des Découvertes et Conquêtes des Portugais and an anonymous Description of the Fort and Island of Bombay, published at London in 1724.
