Rosseter's "Edinburgh Edition"

OF THE

VERLEY + NOVELS.

12 Vols., royal 18mo, cloth gilt, gilt tops, price
Two Shillings per volume.

Novel, extending on an average to about 300 pages, is complete and unabridged, containing Walter's Prefaces, Notes, etc., which have been copyrighted.

Special feature of this new Edition is a Glossary, giving the meaning of Scottish words, printed at the bottom of each page where they occur; also new notes.

Work is printed from a new readable type, on good paper specially prepared.

Binding is neat and tasteful, and the Volumes are in appearance.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"Rosseter's edition strikes me as a particularly good one."—

"One of the most charming, as it is certainly one of the best ever seen."—The Bailie.

"Possesses this advantage over many other editions—it is complete."—Liverpool Courier.

"An edition that no library need be ashamed of, nor any collector of."—Literary World.
