VIRGO TO LEAVE ACRL

Julie Carroll Virgo, executive director of ACRL since 1977, has submitted her resignation effective June 30, 1984. She has accepted a position as vice-president of the Carroll Group, a management consulting firm. She will also remain on the faculty of the University of Chicago's Graduate Library School.

In her role as ACRL's executive officer, she has given excellent direction to the ACRL Headquarters office and has offered invaluable counsel to ACRL's leaders.

A native of Australia, Virgo came to the United States in 1966 where she obtained an MLS (1968), a Ph.D. in librarianship (1974), and an MBA (1983) from the University of Chicago. Before coming to ACRL she served as director of education for the Medical Library Association.

Dr. Virgo's resignation represents a significant loss for ACRL and ALA—she leaves, however, with best wishes from all of us.—Joyce Ball, ACRL President. ■■
