ACRL Officers for 1977/78

Eldred R. Smith, director of libraries at the University of Minnesota (Wilson Library, Minneapolis, MN 55455), is the thirty-ninth president of the Association of College and Research Libraries, a division of the American Library Association. During his term of office, Smith will preside over the ACRL Board of Directors and the ACRL Executive Committee. He will develop the plans for ACRL's major program meeting at the 1978 ALA Annual Conference in Chicago and will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for that conference. The president serves as a member of all ACRL editorial boards and as an ex-officio member of all other units of the association.

As president of the division, Smith will represent ACRL on other ALA committees, including the Committee on Policy Implementation for the Program of Action for Mediation, Arbitration, and Inquiry and the ALA Divisional Interests Special Committee. Smith also represents ACRL and ALA to other organizations, such as the American Council on Education.

In addition to his tenure as ACRL vice-president/president-elect during 1976/77, Smith's service to ACRL and ALA includes chairing the ACRL Committee on Academic Status and the ACRL University Libraries Section. He has served on the ALA Standards Committee, the Resources and Technical Services Division's Library Materials Price Index Committee, and the Library Research Round Table. He is currently chairing the ACRL/Association of Research Libraries Joint Committee on University Library Standards.

Evan Ira Farber, librarian at Earlham College (Richmond, IN 47374), is the newly elected vice-president/president-elect of the Association of College and Research Libraries. In the recent elections, Farber received 1,082 votes. The other candidates, Herbert Biblo, assistant librarian at the John Crerar Library, and Arthur Monke, librarian at Bowdoin College, received 454 votes and 433 votes respectively.

In the past, Farber has served ACRL as chair of its College Libraries Section. He has served ALA as a member of the Library Administration Division's Buildings and Equipment Committee and the Non-Western Resources Committee. He was a Councilor for ALA from 1969 to 1971.

As vice-president/president-elect of ACRL, Farber will serve on the ACRL Board of Directors, the ACRL Executive Committee, and the ACRL Planning Committee. He will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1979 ALA Annual Conference in Dallas; and he will represent ACRL on the ALA Committee on Appointments, the ALA Budget Assembly, and the ALA Conference Program Committee for the 1979 conference. At the close of the 1978 Annual Conference, he will become ACRL's fortieth president.

William J. Studer, director of libraries at the Ohio State University, and Billy R. Wilkinson, staff relations officer at the New York Public Library, were recently elected to serve four-year terms as directors-at-large on the ACRL board. Studer received 1,196 votes; Wilkinson, 932. The other candidates, Marjorie C. Dennin, director of the learning resources center at the Annandale Campus of Northern Virginia Community College, and Hal C. Stone, assistant dean for instructional resources at Los Angeles

City College, received 913 votes and 459 votes respectively.

The results of the ACRL section elections follow. For each position, the elected candidate is listed first. The number of votes earned by each candidate is listed in parentheses.

Highlights of the Annual Conference Meetings of the ACRL Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of the Association of College and Research Libraries met twice during the 1977 ALA Annual Conference in Detroit: on Friday, June 17, and on Tuesday, June 21.

ACRL 1978 National Conference

George R. Parks, conference chair for ACRL's national conference scheduled to be in Boston, November 8-11, 1978, announced the conference theme, "New Horizons for Academic Libraries," and the Call for Papers on topics relating broadly to the future of academic and research librarianship. (Note: The Call for Papers appears on p.230 of this issue of C&RL News.)

Screening and Appointment of Academic Librarians

The "Guidelines and Procedures for the Screening and Appointment of Academic Librarians," developed by the Committee on Academic Status, was approved as ACRL policy. (Note: The policy appears on p.231 of this issue of C&RL News.)

Salary Survey

The ACRL Board of Directors approved in principle a proposal presented by the Committee on Academic Status to solicit funding for another ACRL salary survey of academic librarians. The results of ACRL's first salary survey were published in August 1976 as Salary
