

tory from Louisiana State University.

From 1947 to 1949 he worked in the library of the University of Alabama. He was in Guatemala City, Rio de Janeiro, and San José, Costa Rica, as librarian with the U.S. Information Service from 1950 to 1954. He then worked in the library of Louisiana State University and was associate library director at Texas A&M University before coming to Washington in 1967.

Woodward was a consultant to the Ford Foundation for the National Engineering University Libraries in Lima, Peru, in 1966. He had also been active in the Special Libraries Association and the Columbia Historical Society. ■■

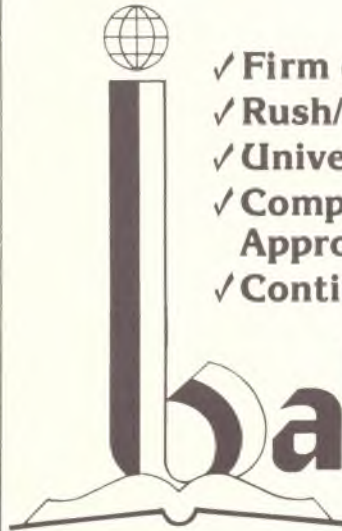

Publications

NOTICES

● Available Pay Survey Reports: An Annotated Bibliography, edited by Stephen Langer (3 volumes, 1980), is an exhaustive listing of reports on professional and non-professional salaries in every conceivable employment situation. Indexes to survey sources, geographic areas, types of employers, and job titles make the set very useful in locating source material. Volume 1 ($95) deals with U.S. pay surveys; Volume 2 ($40) with U.S. Federal government surveys; and Volume 3 ($45) with non-U.S. surveys. The set is available for $150 from Abbott, Langer & Associates, P.O. Box 275, Park Forest, IL 60466; (312) 756-3990.

● Basic Preservation Procedures, SPEC Kit #70 (116 pages, January 1981), provides many examples of programs and procedures for the care and protection of library materials that can be implemented by libraries without specially-trained staff. This is the third ARL SPEC Kit to result from the March 1980 SPEC survey on preservation. The kit is available to ARL members and SPEC subscribers for $7.50 and to others for $15 (plus $2 handling charge), prepayment required, from SPEC, OMS/ARL, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

● Career Patterns of Women Librarians with Doctorates, by Doris C. Dale (28 pages, December 1980), has been published as Occasional Paper No. 147 of the University of Illinois Graduate School of

✓ Firm order services
✓ Rush/Reserve Department
✓ University Press Division
✓ Comprehensive & Customized Approval Programs
✓ Continuation/Standing Order Services

Ballen
Booksellers International, Inc.
66 Austin Boulevard, Commack, New York 11725
Toll-free WATS line: (800) 645-5237

Regional offices: Atlanta, GA Palo Alto, CA

Library Science. The paper may be ordered for $3, prepayment required, from the Graduate School of Library Science, Publications Office, 249 Armory Building, 505 E. Armory St., Champaign, IL 61820.

● A Checklist and Union Catalog of Holdings of Major Published Library Catalogs in METRO Libraries, by George Thompson (65 pages, 1980), has been published as METRO Miscellaneous Publication No. 27. The checklist includes entries for 351 catalogs of major United States libraries published in the last 20 years. A copy may be ordered for $10 ($15 if invoice is required) from the New York Metropolitan Reference and Research Library Agency, 33 W. 42d St., New York, NY 10036.

● A Key to Abbreviations of Bibliographic Terms in Foreign Languages Used in AACR2, by Hans H. Wellisch (1981), serves as an explanation and translation of the list of bibliographic terms in Appendix B9-12 of AACR2 which may be abbreviated under certain conditions. The guide is available for $1.50 (plus 75¢ postage and handling) from the University Book Center, Student Union Building, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20742.

● Members of Congress: A Checklist of Their Papers (217 pages, 1981) has been compiled by John J. McDonough and Marilyn K. Parr. This list provides ready access to the collections of papers in the Library of Congress Manuscript Division which deal with members of Congress, whether a single signature or 214 containers of papers. The document may be obtained for $9 from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402.

● A catalog of the 25th anniversary exhibition of the founding of the Department of Rare Books and Special Collections in the Thomas Fisher Rare Book Library, University of Toronto, entitled Twenty-Five Years (28 pages, November 1980), can be ordered for $3 from the Fisher Library, University of Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A5.

AUDIOVISUAL NOTICES

● The Chicago Union Catalog of Religion and Theology has been completed by the member libraries of the Chicago Cluster of Theological Schools and the University of Chicago Library. The catalog's format is 24x negative microfiche. The main body consists of nearly 460,000 entries representing the holdings of the Cluster Libraries, and the religion holdings of the University of Chicago and Newberry Libraries. For further information, contact Hedda Durnbaugh, Cluster Library Program Director, 1100 E. 55th St., Chicago, IL 60615; (312) 667-3500, Ext. 266.

● Welt im Film 1945-1950 has been published as a microfiche catalog of the Imperial War Museum's holdings of material from the Anglo-American newsreel screened in occupied Germany after the Second World War. The catalog covers almost 300 films and is provided on a single 42x reduction computer-output microfiche. The first issue of the newsreel was screened ten days after VE Day; screening was compulsory in every theater in the British and American Zones of occupied Germany until the creation of the German Federal Republic in September, 1949. Copies are available from the Imperial War Museum, Lambeth Rd., London, England SE1 6HZ.

ACRL'S FAST JOB LISTING

Looking for a job? Our Fast Job Listing will send you job postings received at ACRL headquarters four weeks before they appear in C&RL News. The Fast Job Listing Service also contains advertisements which, because of narrow application deadlines, will not appear in C&RL News.

The ACRL office prepares a Fast Job Listing circular at the beginning of each month and mails it to subscribers first class. The circular contains all job announcements received during the previous four weeks.

The cost of a six-month subscription is $5 for ACRL members and $10 for nonmembers. You may enter your subscription below.

Please enter my subscription to the ACRL Fast Job Listing Service.

_____ I am a member of ACRL and am enclosing $5.

_____ I am not a member of ACRL and am enclosing $10.

NAME: _____

ADDRESS: _____

Please make checks payable to ACRL/ALA and send to Fast Job Listing Service, ACRL/ALA, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611.

RECEIVED

(Selected items will be reviewed in future issues of College & Research Libraries.)

- In honor of the centennial year of the first Cutter author number table, ALA has published Book Numbers: History, Principles, and Applications (1980, $7.50 paper) by Donald J. Léhus. The book is divided into two parts: a history of the evolution of author numbers in the nineteenth century, and a manual for assigning book numbers.

- ALA has also issued a new edition of Fundamental Reference Sources (1980, $12.50) by Frances Neel Cheney and Wiley J. Williams. Fundamental Reference Sources is designed as a textbook for a basic reference course.

- Another view of reference books is offered by Pierian Press' Reference Sources, 1980 (Volume 4, $65), a bibliographic record of the year's reference book production. Reference Sources indexes the reviews of reference materials from nearly 600 library and non-library related journals.

- A distinguished group of international experts address the concerns, issues, and practices of Cataloging and Classification of Non-Western Material (Oryx Press, 1980, $18.50), edited by Mohammed M. Aman, Dean of the School of Library Science, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

- Forest Press, the publishers of the Dewey Decimal Classification, have issued the Proposed Revision of 780 Music Based on Dewey Decimal Classification and Relative Index, (1980) as a separate for testing by music librarians. The publishers will authorize its inclusion in a future unabridged edition only after the library profession has had the opportunity to study and react to it.

- A new title in the McGraw-Hill Series in Library Education is Cataloging and Classification: An Introduction (1981, $18.95) by Lois Mai Chan. Chan is also the author of the recently issued third edition of Immroth's Guide to the Library of Congress Classification.

- Online Searching: An Introduction (Butterworths, 1980, $31.95) by W. H. Henry et al., which evolved from a seminar in Britain on online bibliographic searching, is designed for both managers and searchers. The authors all have wide experience in online searching, and were active in its development in the United Kingdom.

- The third edition of Science and Engineering Literature: A Guide to Reference Sources, by H. Robert Malinowsky and Jeanne M. Richardson, is now available from Libraries Unlimited ($22.50 cloth; $14.50 paper). This 1980 edition has been completely rewritten and updated to include publications and new editions that appeared since 1976.

- Volume 3 in the Foundations in Library and Information Science series is The Microform Revolution in Libraries (Jai Press Inc., 1980, $26.50) by Michael R. Gabriel and Dorothy P. Ladd. The Microform Revolution surveys the development of microphotography and early applications in libraries, microformats, computer output microfilm, library materials in microform, library acquisition of microforms, performance, and establishment of a microform facility.

- Video Discs: The Technology, the Applications and the Future (Knowledge Industry Pubs., 1980, $29.95), by Efreim Sigel et al., "presents an informative account of what video discs can do, their relationship to other information/communications technologies, and the economic forces that may help or hinder acceptance of discs in the institutional and consumer markets."

- Supervisory and Middle Managers in Libraries (Scarecrow Press, 1981, $12) by Martha J. Bailey utilizes the author's own studies and material selected from the literature of business and library management to examine the roles of middle and supervisory managers in a library setting.

- Knowledge Industry Publications extols The Cable/Broadband Communications Book, Volume 2, 1980-1981 as "a complete reference work and source book on all aspects of the complex cable industry." The book is arranged in four parts: ownership and regulatory framework; local needs and services; impact of the satellite on pay, non-pay, and public service programming; and the cable/computer connection. The Cable/Broadband Communications Book is available for $29.95.

- "The development of larger networking activities from local library automation and the importance of technical compatibility and standards to

Your catalog cards duplicated quickly, economically. The easy LRS way.

Free mailing boxes for your convenience. Orders completed in 7 days. SPECIAL OFFER! Up to 200 quality duplicates at no cost to you. See for yourself - contact

LRS LIBRARY REPRODUCTION SERVICE

THE MICROFILM COMPANY OF CALIFORNIA, INC.

1977 S. Los Angeles Street
Los Angeles, California 90011

CALL COLLECT (213) 749-2463

CRJ 11/81

assure effective networking" are discussed by Susan K. Martin in her edition of Library Networks, 1981-82, published in January by Knowledge Industry Publications, Inc. Library Networks is available for $29.50; $24.50 softcover.

● Progress in Communication Science, Volume II (1980) brings together state-of-the-art reviews "each focusing on one or more of the following areas: information, information transfer, and information systems; the uses and effects of communications; and the control and regulating of communications and information." Progress in Communication Science, the second in an annual series, is available from Abelex Pub. Corp. for $32.50. ■■

Calendar

May

7-8—ARL: Annual conference, Association of Research Libraries, New York. Contact: ARL, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., Washington, DC 20036; (202) 232-2466.

8—OCLC: "OCLC: Present and Future—The Users' Perspective," sponsored by the Illinois OCLC Users Group, Chicago Public Library Cultural Center. Fee: $35 for IOUG members, $50 non-members. Contact: Adrian Jones, Director of Libraries, Roosevelt University, 430 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60605; (312) 341-3640.

8-9—Archives: Mid-Atlantic Regional Archives Conference, University of Pittsburgh. Contact: Frank A. Zabrosky, 363 Hillman Library, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260; (412) 624-4430.

14-15—Library Assistants: "The New Technologies and the L/MTA," Annual East Coast Conference, Council on Library/Media Technical Assistants, University of the District of Columbia. Contact: Audrey V. Jones, Learning Resources Division, University of the District of Columbia, 4200 Connecticut Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20008.

21-22—Serials: "Conference on the Impact of Serials in Collection Development," sponsored by the University of Oklahoma Libraries and held at the Sheraton Airport Inn, Oklahoma City. Topics include management of the serials budget, serial microform collections, serial use studies, and national cooperation efforts. Speakers include Herbert White, David Stam, Robin Downes, and Roger Hanson. Registration closes May 1. Fee: $55. Contact: Rodney Hersberger, University of Oklahoma Libraries, Norman, OK 73019; (405) 325-2611.

29—Subject Headings: "Library of Congress Subject Headings: The New Edition and Future Trends," Rutgers Graduate School of Library and Information Studies, New Brunswick, New Jersey. Contact: Jana Varlejs, Rutgers GSLIS, 4 Huntingdon St., New Brunswick, NJ 08903; (201) 932-7169.

29-June 4—Medical Libraries: Annual conference, Medical Library Association, Montreal. Contact: MLA, 919 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60611;

(312) 266-2456.

June

1-August 14—Catholic University Seminars: The School of Library and Information Science of Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., will offer seven seminars and courses for optional graduate credit. Topics include: "Institute on the Library and Political Process," June 1-12, $360; "Institute on In-House Collections Maintenance," June 4-20, $410; "The Economics of Information," June 22-July 31, $375; "Seminar on Public Relations," July 9-11 and August 8-9, $310; "Institute on Federal Library Resources," July 13-24, $375; "Institute on Library Networking," July 27-August 7, $375; and "Intensive Online Workshop for Library Educators," August 3-14, $400. Contact: School of Library and Information Science, Catholic University of America, Washington, DC 20064; (202) 635-5085.

9-12—Canada: Canadian Library Association, annual conference, Hamilton, Ontario. Contact: Canadian Library Association, 151 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ontario K1P 5E3; (613) 232-9625.

10-11—Online Databases: "Federal Databases: Identification, Evaluation and Access," held at the American University, Washington. Fee: $190. Contact: Lowell H. Hattery, Center for Technology and Administration, American University, Washington, DC 20016; (202) 686-2513.

10-12—Indexing: "Indexing in Perspective: Traditional to Computerized Retrieval Systems," a seminar sponsored by the National Federation of Abstracting and Indexing Services at the Atlanta Hilton Hotel. Emphasis will be placed on relating indexing developments of the past 20 years to the library and information science fields. Fee: $245 for NFAIS members, $295 for non-members. Contact: NFAIS, 112 S. 16th St., Philadelphia, PA 19102; (215) 563-2406.

13-18—Special Libraries: Annual conference, Special Libraries Association, Atlanta. Contact: Special Libraries Association, 235 Park Ave. South, New York, NY 10003; (212) 477-9250.

24-26—Energy Sources: "Online and Otherwise: Energy and Environment Information," seminar sponsored by the National Federation of Abstract-