

PROFILES

ROBERT G. ANDERL is the new associate director for automation and coordinator for technical services at McFarlin Library, the University of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The position has responsibility for designing and implementing a fully integrated automation system which will include online catalog, circulation, and acquisitions systems.

Robert G. Anderl

Anderl formerly worked in various positions at the Syracuse University Library, New York, and for the past 15 years as assistant director for technical services at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. He has edited several Nevada lists of serials and in 1978 edited the Intermountain Union List of Serials. Anderl was Nevada representative to the Mountain-Plains Library Association Board of Trustees in 1980-81, and in 1977 received a Nevada State Library Certificate of Merit and a Nevada Library Association Special Citation.

DARRELL L. JENKINS has been appointed director of library services at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale. Jenkins has responsibility for ten departments and divisions within the university's Morris Library.

Darrell Jenkins

Jenkins has been administrative services librarian at SIUC since 1977. Previously he was on the library staff at New Mexico State University (1972-77) where he served as head of the Reference Department, Education/Psychology Division librarian, and other positions in acquisitions, cataloging, and serials. Jenkins received his MLS from the University of Oklahoma and a master's in public administration from New Mexico State University.

He has been active in professional associations including ALA, ASIS, and the New Mexico and Illinois Library Associations. He currently chairs the LAMA Library Organization and Management Section's Planning and Evaluation of Library Services Committee.

Jenkins has contributed numerous articles to professional journals including the Journal of Library Administration and the Journal of Academic Librarianship.

RICHARD W. MCCOY has been named president of the Research Libraries Group. He assumes his new post on January 17 at RLG's central offices in Stanford, California. McCoy's appointment concludes a four months' nationwide search conducted by an international firm engaged to work with a search committee appointed by the Board of Governors.

McCoy comes to RLG with substantial expertise in the field of information systems and data processing management at the University of Wisconsin, in the Wisconsin state government, and in the federal government. Most recently he has served as director of the State Office of Information Systems Management in the Wisconsin Department of Administration, and in a staff assignment for the Secretary of that department.

His past appointments include: coordinator of computing activities, Office of Administration, Executive Office of the President of the United States; assistant to the Secretary, Wisconsin Department of Health and Social Services; director of administrative data processing and director of academic computing at the University of Wisconsin.

McCoy holds bachelor's, master's, and Ph.D. degrees in engineering, management, and applied computing from the University of Wisconsin.

JACQUELYN M. MORRIS has been appointed associate director of libraries at the University of the Pacific, Stockton, California, effective August 15, 1982. She was formerly head of the Reference Division at the Albert R. Mann Library, Cornell University. Prior to her position at Cornell, Morris was coordinator of public services at SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry in Syracuse, New York. She has also served as an adjunct professor at Syracuse University School of Information Studies.

Jacquelyn Morris

Morris has been active in ACRL, currently serving as chair of the Ad Hoc College Library Standards Committee. She is also chair of the Bibliographic Instruction Section's Research Committee and ACRL liaison to the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

Morris received her MLS from Syracuse University in 1972 and has authored several publications, including Library Searching: Resources and Strategies (co-authored with Elizabeth Elkins). She was awarded the SUNY Chancellor's Award for Excellence in Librarianship.

DONALD R. SMITH has been appointed associate director for public services and collection development at the University of Tulsa's McFarlin Library. Formerly head education librarian at Southern Illinois University, Edwardsville, Smith has extensive experience in microforms and related equipment, online literature searches, and database formation. His previous positions include library instruction librarian and general studies advisor at Southern Illinois University.

Donald R. Smith

Smith holds master's degrees in history and instructional technology from Southern Illinois University and an MLS from the University of Missouri. He has several professional publications to his credit, including the 1978 ERIC document, Newspaper Indexing Handbook for Small Libraries.

LOUELLA VINE WETHERBEE has been appointed director of libraries at George Mason University, Fairfax, Virginia, effective July 1, 1982.

Wetherbee earned both a bachelor's (1967) and an MLS (1969) at the University of Texas, Austin. Her previous professional experience includes several positions at the AMIGOS Bibliographic Council where she served as associate director of member services (1978-1980) and assistant to the director (1977-78). Wetherbee also held several positions at the University of Texas including cataloger of the Latin American Collection (1970-1974), bibliographic control librarian (1974-1976), and Latin American projects coordinator (1976-1977).

Louella Wetherbee

University of Texas including cataloger of the Latin American Collection (1970-1974), bibliographic control librarian (1974-1976), and Latin American projects coordinator (1976-1977).

It's Time To Try A New ROUTE.

Introducing ROUTE. The Newest Module In Faxon's LINX System.

Now there's a computerized system for creating, updating and printing journal routing slips. The ROUTE system.

With ROUTE, all the time-consuming details of managing routing lists are taken care of for you. ROUTE keeps track of who gets what publications; it lists readers by name, location, address and other identifiers you specify. It can prioritize routing order by title or other parameters, and it produces all your routing slips for you.

Show Me The ROUTE.

I'm looking for a way to manage periodical distribution more efficiently. Send me all the facts on your ROUTE system right away.

NAME _____
ADDRESS _____
CITY _____
STATE _____ ZIP _____

faxon

17 Southwood Park, Westwood, MA 02090

ROUTE also gives you valuable management and statistical reports, a simplified procedure for changing reader records, and much more.

For the full story on easy-to-use, easy-to-learn ROUTE, part of Faxon's LINX serials management system, just return the coupon or call 617-329-3350; outside of Boston, call 800-225-6055.

faxon

The Art and Science of Serials Management.

She was principal of the Southwest Information Associates, a consulting firm (1976-1978) and has also consulted on library automation projects in Mexico, Costa Rica, Colombia, and Venezuela. Wetherbee served as the executive secretary of the Seminar on Latin American Library Materials (1976-1977), and has contributed articles to The Serials Librarian and Revista Interamericana de Bibliotecologia. She is active in ALA and serves on its International Relations Committee.

CHARLENE RENNER has been appointed assistant director for technical services at the Iowa State University Library, Ames. Before coming to Iowa State, Renner was assistant director for automated reference service at the University of Illinois.

Renner began her career in the Serials Department at Ohio State University Libraries in 1959. After receiving her graduate degree from the Drexel Institute of Technology in 1964, she served as reference librarian and catalog librarian at the Free Library of Philadelphia. In 1965 she went to the University of Illinois where she has worked as cataloger, head of catalog maintenance, English language and literature librarian, and acting head of bibliographic records.

Renner was an academic library management intern at the University of California, Berkeley in 1980-81.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

ANNE K. BEAUBIEN, manager and coordinator of the University of Michigan's Michigan Information Transfer Source, has been honored by the Ann Arbor Business and Professional Woman's Club as Ann Arbor's Woman of the Year. The award, presented last fall by the mayor of Ann Arbor, cites Beaubien for "outstanding achievements and contributions, both professionally and personally." Beaubien currently serves as chair of the ACRL Bibliographic Instruction Section's Continuing Education Committee.

JOHN C. BLAIR, JR., head of computer applications at the Medical Sciences Library, Texas A&M University, College Station, has won the 1982 Data Courier Award for his article, "Creating Your Own Database," in the August 1982 issue of Data-base. The article was selected for excellence in published papers on the online industry. A plaque and a check for $1,000 were presented to Blair by Data Courier president Loene Trubkin at the Online '82 meeting in Atlanta on November 2. Blair also writes a regular column on microcomputers in Online magazine entitled "Micro Magic."

ELINOR M. HASHIM has been named by President Reagan as chairman of the National Commission on Libraries and Information Science (NCLIS). She was sworn in at the Connecticut State Library, Hartford, on November 18 by Judge Raymond E. Baldwin. Hashim currently serves as supervisor of Reference and Technical Services at the Perkin-

Elmer Corporate Library, Norwalk, Connecticut. Her term of office on the Commission expires in July, 1986.

DAVID KASER, professor of library and information science at Indiana University, recently traveled to Saudi Arabia, Canada, and Taiwan to consult on the design of academic library buildings.

APPOINTMENTS

(Appointment notices are taken from library newsletters, letters from personnel offices and appointees, and other sources. To ensure that your appointment appears, write to the Editor, ACRL, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611.)

R. CHRISTOPHER ASCH has been appointed cataloger at Queens College of the City University of New York, Flushing.

IRENE AVENS has been appointed art librarian at Queens College of the City University of New York, Flushing.

EULALIE BROWN has been appointed documents librarian at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

JUDITH A. BUSHNELL is now evening reference specialist at the State University College of Arts and Science, Geneseo, New York.

ANNE MARIE CASEY has been appointed general reference librarian at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, Lafayette.

CAROL DICKERSON has been appointed collections librarian in the Walker Management Library, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

SANDY L. FOLSOM has joined the staff of the Old Dominion University Library, Norfolk, Virginia, as serials/general cataloger.

JANET FREDERICK has been appointed automated processing librarian at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque.

GARY D. GEER has joined the staff of the University of South Carolina Libraries, Columbia, as assistant reference librarian for collection management.

SHIRLEY GREGORY is the new librarian at Wilson County Technical Institute, Wilson, North Carolina.

WILMA R. GULSTAD has been appointed health sciences cataloger at the University of Missouri, Columbia.

BETSY HABICH has been appointed Reserve Book Librarian at Northeastern University Libraries, Boston.

RANDY B. HENSLEY has been appointed reference librarian at the Odegaard Undergraduate Library at the University of Washington, Seattle.

LINDA HOFFMAN is now head of the Government Documents Department, University of California, Davis.

JAMES H. HUTSON has been named chief of the Manuscript Division of the Library of Congress.