

PROFILE

Ms. SHERRIE S. BERGMAN has been appointed college librarian at Wheaton College, Norton, Massachusetts, replacing Ms. Hilda Harris who has retired. Ms. Bergman, a native New Yorker, received a B.A. degree in sociology from Brooklyn College and an M.S. degree from the School of Library Service at Columbia University. She started her library career as a library trainee and junior librarian at Queens Borough Public Library. From this post she moved to the

Sherrie S. Bergman

New School for Social Research Library as an assistant reference librarian and from there went to Roger Williams College in Bristol, Rhode Island, where she was Providence campus librarian before her appointment, in 1972, as director of the Roger Williams College Library. Chosen last spring to participate at the University of Michigan in a six-week Institute for Administrative Advancement (a program which trains women for positions in academic administration and is funded by the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Corporation of New York), she assumed her new duties at Wheaton on March first.

As a member of the American Library Association, Ms. Bergman has been active in the Social Responsibilities Round Table and its Task Force on Women and was a founder of the Rhode Island Affiliate of the Social Responsibilities Round Table for which she is currently serving as coordinator. She is also a member of the New England Library Association and of the Rhode Island Library Association where she has served on the Conference Planning and Nominating committees. Ms. Bergman holds memberships in the American Association for Higher Education, Women Educators of Rhode Island, the American Civil Liberties Union, and the National Organization for Women.

Classified Advertising

NOTICE

Respondents to advertisers offering faculty "rank" and "status" are advised that these terms are ambiguous and should inquire as to benefits involved.

All advertisements submitted by institutions offering positions must include a salary range. The range should provide the applicant with an indication of the salary the institution is willing to provide for the position offered.

All advertisements for the Positions Wanted and the Positions Open classifications will be edited to exclude direct or indirect references to race, creed, color, age, and sex as conditions of employment.

Classified advertising orders and copy, and cancellations, should be addressed to the Advertising Department, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago 60611, and should reach that office before the second of the month preceding publication of issue desired. Copy received after that time may be held for the next issue.

Telephone orders for classified advertising, while not encouraged because of the increased risk of copy error, will be accepted. Calls should be directed to Leona Swiech at (312) 944-6780. A confirming order should be mailed to the Advertising Department as soon as possible following the call, along with typewritten copy to be used in proofreading the ad.

Rate for classified advertising is $1.30 per printed line.
