

tutions to which UMI extended the offer. The Library plans to order complete sets of many titles now partially held as well as runs of some 250 new titles and additional viewing equipment.

•The University of Utah, Salt Lake City, has received a $41,340 grant from the U.S. Department of Education to make its social sciences data files accessible to other institutions in the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research. Established in 1962, the ICPSR collection includes more than 1,300 tapes on topics ranging from elections to geographic mobility of workers. A code book describes the contents of each file. With the grant, Utah plans to purchase all ICPSR code books, collect existing OCLC catalog entries, identifying data files for which no catalog record exists and creating records for them.

PUBLICATIONS

• The Academic Library Director: Management Activities and Effectiveness, by Joanne R. Euster (168 pages, November 1987), analyzes the contribution of the director's personal leadership style and management skills to the successful operation of a college, university, or research library. Euster develops a model of the leadership role that takes account of management literature regarding organizational leadership, open systems theories, and organizational effectiveness. Proposing a typology of library leaders, she presents detailed profiles of four primary leadership types—the "Energizer," the "Sustainer," the "Politician," and the "Retiree." Appendices contain study questionnaires and methodological notes. A copy may be ordered for $35 from Greenwood Press, 88 Post Road West, Box 5007, Westport, CT 06881. ISBN 0-313-25789-2.

• The third annual Automation Inventory of Research Libraries (160 pages, October 1987) has been published by the Association of Research Libraries' Systems and Procedures Exchange Center. The inventory explores 18 automated functions according to six descriptive elements: operating status (planned, operating or modifying), extent of system (library only, branches, campus-wide, or multi-institution), computer ownership/use (dedicated or shared), public access (onsite, dial-up or local area network), number of workstations, and name of vendor or network. The 18 functions covered this year are: acquisitions, serials check/claim, serials/union list, authority control, cataloging/utility, cataloging/local, circulation, reserve room, COM catalog, online catalog, database searching, collection development, interlibrary loan, telefacsimile, public computing, administrative, database conversion, and reference. Narrative comments from 58 of the 115 ARL libraries surveyed are included. Copies may be ordered for $40 (prepaid) from SPEC, OMS/ARL, 1527 New Hampshire Ave., N.W., Washington, DC 20036.

• A Bibliography of Latin American and Caribbean Bibliographies, 1986-1987, by Lionel V. Loroña (64 pages, October 1987), has been published as number 20 in the SALALM Bibliography and Reference Series. This fifth annual edition covers relevant monographic and periodical bibliographies in all topics from agriculture to urbanization. Copies are available for $13 (plus $2 shipping) from the SALALM Secretariat, 728 State Street, Madison, WI 53706.

• A Check-list of Publications of H.H. Bancroft and Company, 1857 to 1870, by Henry R. Wagner, Eleanor Bancroft, and Ruth Frey Axe (52 pages, October 1987), documents the output of the publishing company founded by Hubert Howe Bancroft (1832-1918), collector of Western and Latin Americana and the founder of the Bancroft Library. During its 14-year existence, Bancroft's company issued 212 titles. Henry Wagner's check-list of Bancroft publications was left unfinished at his death in 1957, and his collaborator, Eleanor Ashby Bancroft, then assistant to the director of the Bancroft Library, also died in that year. Wagner's long-time associate, Ruth Frey Axe, has now completed the work, which has been published jointly by the Friends of The Bancroft Library and the Friends of the UCLA Library. A copy may be or-
