LOEX survey

For the first time in 15 years, the LOEX Clearinghouse for Library Instruction will conduct a national survey of bibliographic/library instruction activities and programs in United States academic libraries. Questionnaires are being sent out this month to any academic library that has contacted LOEX since 1972.

Results of the survey will update all information in the LOEX database on library instruction. Please participate! If your academic library is not a current member, you may receive a questionnaire by contacting: Teresa Bungard, Director, LOEX Clearinghouse, Eastern Michigan University, University Library, Ypsilanti, MI 48197.
