
ACRL seeks volunteers for offices and committees

The Association needs your help to achieve its goals and objectives.

Would you like to run for an ACRL office or volunteer for appointment to an ACRL standing committee? Are you interested in seeking office in an ACRL section or being considered for appointment to a section committee? If the answer is yes to any of these questions, here is what you need to do.

ACRL President

The ACRL Appointments and Nominations Committee will nominate candidates for the office of ACRL vice-president/president-elect at the January 1987 Midwinter Meeting of ALA. The election for this office will be held in the spring of 1988. The winner of the election will serve as vice-president/president-elect during 1988-89 and as president of ACRL during 1989-90. If you wish to be considered for nomination to this office or if you would like to submit names for consideration, contact the chair of the Appointments and Nominations Committee, Jordan M. Scepanski, Director, Library/Learning Resources, California State University-Long Beach, 1250 Bellflower Boulevard, Long Beach, CA 90840.

ACRL committees

ACRL has 20 standing committees to which appointments may be made:

- Academic Library Statistics Committee;
- Academic or Research Librarian of the Year Award Committee;
- Academic Status Committee;
- Appointments and Nominations Committee;
- Audiovisual Committee;
- Budget and Finance Committee;

- Conference Program Planning Committee;
- Constitution and Bylaws Committee;
- Copyright Committee;
- Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship Committee;
- Legislation Committee;
- Membership Committee;
- National Conference Committee;
- Planning Committee;
- Professional Association Liaison Committee;
- Professional Education Committee;
- Publications Committee;
- Research Committee;
- Samuel Lazerow Fellowship Committee;
- Standards and Accreditation Committee.

To learn about the areas of responsibility covered by these committees, see the ALA Handbook of Organization 1986-87.

When selected vacancies occur on ACRL standing committees, the Appointments and Nominations Committee recommends to the president-elect of ACRL the names of members who might fill the vacancies. The president-elect makes the final appointments. If you are interested in being considered for appointment to an ACRL committee, you should complete the ACRL Committee Volunteer Form that is included in this issue of C&RL News and mail it to Jordan M. Scepanski, chair of the Appointments and Nominations Committee, before December 15, 1986.

ACRL section officers

ACRL has 14 sections (their names are listed later in this article). You will find a description of their areas of responsibility in the ALA Handbook

ACRL COMMITTEE VOLUNTEER FORM

If you are interested in serving on an ACRL standing committee, please complete this form and mail it before December 15, 1986, to: Jordan M. Scepanski, Director, Library/Learning Resources, California State University-Long Beach, 1250 Bellflower Boulevard, Long Beach, CA 90840.

If you would like to serve on an ACRL section committee, send this form to the appropriate section vice-chair/chair-elect before the ALA Midwinter Meeting.

of Organization.

The chair-elect of a section appoints the chair and members of all section committees when scheduled vacancies on these committees occur. If you would like to be considered for appointment as chair or member of a section committee, fill out the ACRL Committee Volunteer Form and mail it to the chair-elect of the appropriate section (see "People to contact" below) before December 15, 1986.

Editorial boards

ACRL has five editorial boards:

- the Choice Editorial Board;
- the College & Research Libraries Editorial Board;
- the College & Research Libraries News Editorial Board;
- the Publications in Librarianship Editorial Board;
- the Rare Books and Manuscripts Librarianship Editorial Board.

When a vacancy occurs on an editorial board, the editor recommends the name of a person to fill the vacancy. The Publications Committee must approve the recommendation, and the president of ACRL makes the appointment.

If you would like to be considered for appointment to an editorial board, contact the editor of the publication (see "People to contact" below).

Remember that at any given time there are only a limited number of vacancies on ACRL's committees, sections, and editorial boards. If at first you don't succeed in obtaining an appointment, try again. Make yourself known to committee chairs by sitting in on meetings, volunteering to help with committee projects, etc. If committee chairs see that you are interested in the work of their committees, they may recommend your name to the appropriate appointing body when a vacancy occurs.

ACRL chapters

Meet ACRL's local representatives.

ACRL chapters serve as channels between academic and research librarians and the ACRL Headquarters. Thirty-seven regional and state ACRL chapters now cover forty-one states and one Canadian province, and provide opportunities for local participation for over 9,000 ACRL members who live within those areas. To find out how you can participate, contact the chair of the chapter nearest to you.

If you would like to start a chapter in your region, contact Linda Woo, Chair, Chapters Council Committee for New ACRL State Chapters, 1451 Garfield St., Denver, CO 80206.
