Appointments

Scott Garrison has been named dean of the library at Ferris State University in Big Rapids, Michigan. Garrison was most recently the associate dean for Public Services and Technology at Western Michigan University (WMU) Libraries.

Scott Garrison

Through collaborative efforts with faculty and staff, Garrison implemented the VuFind next-generation catalog system later followed by the adoption of the Summon Web-scale discovery service, which allows researchers to use a Google-like search to obtain credible and reliable research while simplifying library content from myriad “silos.” Prior to his career at WMU Libraries, Garrison served in Central Michigan University’s Office of Academic Affairs, in the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill’s School of Information and Library Science and Health Sciences Library, and in Duke University’s Medical Center Library.
