

Everybody is Wise in Her Own Way

By UWIMANA Dina

One day, the hare and the cat conversed about their lives.

“I am wiser than you. I know many ways to defend myself. What can you do if a monster appears here?” the hare asked the cat.

“I know tricks that can be useful to me,” the cat replied.

Suddenly, they saw panthers coming to catch them. The cat climbed a tree immediately. The hare tried to run, but the panthers caught and killed it. The cat saw that event and said to itself, “Any wise trick can defend you if it is used correctly. Everyone wants to believe his way is the best.”

Dear comrades around the world, respect each other. Everyone is wise in her own way.

