

A Moment in Extinction
jake JONES

Nature and laws, formal or systematic,
jumping up and down
in organized massacre.
Pounded moistened and fermented in poignant suffering, stimulating the mind.
Within ten days of the end,
carrying money, papers,
as much as a pocket will hold.
Cold blooded animals,
two meet or cross at the boiling point,
with position but not extension, to feel and express beauty one port of embarkation, two of entry.
Their stock has gone.
