

Editor's Notes

Norman A. Dolch, Editor-in-Chief
University of North Texas

This issue of JNEL is primarily the ARNOVA Governance Section's Case Studies. The Governance Section has been publishing research and teaching case studies in JNEL for several years, and it is an association prized by JNEL. I thank the Section and the many contributors.

There is one research article in this issue and a book review. As always, readers are encouraged to look at both. Please pay special attention to the call for manuscripts on minorities. In our next issue of JNEL, we will publish manuscripts on Asian NGO/Nonprofit Programs.
