

Volume 42 (Spring 2025)

Promising Practices Articles

*Family and Consumer Sciences Secondary Teacher Competencies in Arkansas:
Responding to Act 480.* Kathryn A. Carroll, Rebekah Long, and Kimberly Sartain.

Incorporating STEM Practices into the Family and Consumer Sciences Education Field.
Gencie Houy and Karen Alexander.

All articles have been converted to Adobe PDF files. View PDF version with Adobe Acrobat Reader.

This issue of the JFCSE was published by LEAD FCS Education (LEADFCS)
Edited under the direction of Lorna Browne, JFCSE Editor
Articles were reviewed under the direction of Nicole A. Graves, JFCSE Associate Editor

Special Thanks to this Issue's Reviewers: Lacey Boschetto, Agnela Gott, Lorna Saboe
Wounded Head, and Nicole Wanago,