

Wittenberg University East Asian Studies Journal

The purpose of the Wittenberg University East Asian Studies Journal is to encourage undergraduates, from both Wittenberg as well as other universities, to pursue scholarly inquiry into East Asian topics, ranging from political analyses to calligraphy samples. One of only a few journals in the United States devoted to undergraduates, the Wittenberg University East Asian Studies Journal seeks to recognize works of high academic quality which are read by the local and international community alike. The Journal seeks not only to draw attention to the Wittenberg University East Asian Studies program, but also to maintain its integral role in the program itself, seeking to broaden scholarly and popular perspectives on East Asia.

The Wittenberg University East Asian Studies Journal was initiated by a group of students in 1975 and has been issued annually each spring since this time. From the beginning, students have directed all creative and managerial processes related to publication. Funded by Wittenberg University Student Senate, the Journal is an entirely student initiated and student directed endeavor, the major goal of which is to afford students the opportunity to participate in the rich scholarly dialogue of those interested in East Asia. As such, all decisions regarding the Journal, including the use of its name, will be made by the student editors in conjunction with the support provided by Student Senate.
