

The conqueror's creed: A declaration and prayer of Christian scripture for those in pain

Emily H. Garmon^a

^a MD, FASA, Clinical Associate Professor of Anesthesiology, Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Medicine, Baylor Scott & White Medical Center, Temple, TX, USA

I submit myself to the Lord's will.
I affirm that I am a child of the Most High God.
I was bought with a price.
Pain does not own me; Christ owns me.
I refuse to allow pain to give the Enemy
a foothold for temptation or doubt.
I take captive my pain so I may fulfill the good works God prepared in advance for me to do.
When I feel hopeless, I will boldly declare the promise that I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength.

Dear God, grant me the strength I need to conquer each day.
Holy Spirit, comfort me in my affliction.
Open my eyes to others who are suffering,
that I may comfort them with the comfort I have received.
Help my testimony bring glory to you, encourage others,
And be a witness for your power and faithfulness.
Please give me a heart that delights in difficulties.
For when I am weak, then I am strong.
I ask all of this through your Son, Jesus Christ,
who suffered on earth as none other before or since.
Amen

Peer Reviewed: Submitted 9 May 2021, accepted 16 Jun 2022, published 20 Jun 2022

Competing Interests: None declared.

Correspondence: Emily H. Garmon, Temple, TX, USA emily.garmon@bswhealth.org

Cite this article as: Germon EH. The conqueror's creed: A declaration and prayer of Christian scripture for those in pain. Christ J Global Health. June 2022; 9(1):125. <https://doi.org/10.15566/cjgh.v9i1.655>

© Author. This is an open-access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License, which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original author and source are properly cited. To view a copy of the license, visit <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>

