The Institute for Scientific Information, the pioneering information people, wanted more college and research librarians to be aware of their services. A film seemed the most practical answer to accomplish this objective. By combining the talents of some ISI services with the exciting world of color, an interesting, informative, swiftly-paced film resulted. If your organization would like to screen this 36-minute, 16 mm sound and color film, attach the coupon below (or a copy of it) to your letterhead. The first eighteen titles in Gale's LITERARY AND HISTORICAL DICTIONARY SERIES included the incomparable and highly-acclaimed Dictionary of English Literature; Dictionary of Names, Nicknames, and Surnames; 5000 Facts and Fancies; and Handy-Book of Literary Curiosities.

Now, a group of equally distinguished titles is being republished as Part II of the series. Each makes a special contribution to the fund of hard-to-find information that can augment full comprehension of a fact of history, a reference in literature, a social custom, an obscure phrase, or a nickname—the subject range is virtually limitless.
