

ACRL award opportunities

The deadline for most awards is December 1, 1995

ACR L's awards program recognizes special achievements and outstanding publications and fosters professional development in academic and research librarianship. Is someone you know deserving of special recognition for their contributions to academic and research librarianship? Take a moment to nominate these outstanding individuals so they can get the recognition they deserve. Please review the requirements for each award and note those for which you or a colleague are eligible.

General submission procedures

Nominations include documentation (a letter) indicating: 1) your name, address, e-mail, and phone number, plus the name, address, e-mail, and phone number of the person you are nominating; 2) narrative supporting the nomination (keeping in mind the award criteria); 3) a current vita.

Individuals may nominate themselves or others. Unless otherwise indicated send nominations and applications to: (Name of the Award), ACRL, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago, IL 60611.

Staff Contact: For a complete list of previous recipients or if you have questions or need help in compiling a nomination contact Jack Briody toll-free at (800) 545-2433, ext. 2516; voice: (312) 280-2516; fax: (312) 280-2520; or e-mail: jack.briody@ala.org.

Submission procedure: Send eight copies of the nominating package (see general submission procedure above).

Deadline: December 1, 1995.

Previous recipients: Joseph Boissé (1995), Irene Hoadley (1994), William A. Moffett (1993), Carla Stoffle (1992), Richard De Gennaro (1991).

Miriam Dudley Instruction Librarian Award

This award recognizes an individual librarian who has made an especially significant contribution to the advancement of instruction in a college or research library environment. The award honors Miriam Dudley, whose pioneering efforts in the field of bibliographic instruction led to the formation of the ACRL Instruction Section.

Award: $1,000 cash donated by Moutainside Publishing Company on behalf of its publication, Research Strategies: A Journal of Library Concepts and Instruction. The award is administered by the Instruction Section of ACRL.

Criteria: Nominees should have achieved distinction in one or more of the following areas:

1. Planning and implementation of an academic instruction program in a library environment that has served as a model for other programs nationally or regionally.
2. Production of a body of research and publication that has a demonstrable impact on the concepts and methods of teaching and information-seeking strategies in a college or research institution.

3. Sustained participation in organizations, at the national or regional level, devoted to the promotion and enhancement of academic instruction in a library environment.

4. Promotion, development, and integration of education for instruction in ALA-accredited library schools or professional continuing education programs that have served as models for other courses and programs.

Submission procedure: Send nominating package (see general submission procedure above) to: Katherine Branch, Dudley Award Jury Chair, 111 Smithwood Ave., Catonsville, MD 21228; (410) 541-2213. Call her if you have questions or need help compiling the nomination.

Deadline: December 1, 1995.

Previous recipients: Lizabeth (Betsy) Wilson (1995), Cerise Oberman (1994), Hannelore Rader (1993), Betsy K. Baker (1992), Carla Stoffle (1991).

Hugh C. Atkinson Memorial Award

This award honors the life and accomplishments of Hugh C. Atkinson, one of the major innovators in modern librarianship, and recognizes outstanding achievement (including risk-taking) by academic librarians that has contributed significantly to improvements in the area of library automation, library management, and/or library development or research.

Award: $2,000 cash and a citation. This award is funded by an endowment created by divisional, individual, and vendor contributions given in memory of Hugh C. Atkinson. Additional funds are sought to bring the endowment to at least $100,000. Send your tax-deductible contributions to: Hugh Atkinson Memorial Award, ACRL/ALA, 50 E. Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611. The award is jointly spon-

Submission Procedure: Send ten copies of the award nomination form to: Laurene E. Zaporozhietz, Louisiana State University in Shreveport, Noel Memorial Library, One University Place, Shreveport, LA 71115. For questions or to request a copy of the form call Zaporozhietz at (318) 798-4131.

Deadline: December 1, 1995.

Marta Lange/CQ Award

This annual award recognizes an academic or law librarian who, through research, other creative activity, or service to the profession, makes distinguished contributions to bibliography and information service in law or political science. This award honors Marta Lange, 1990/91 Law and Political Science Section (LPSS) Chair, whose exceptional talents as a leader were enhanced by a wonderful collegial spirit. Her bright career, cut short in a fatal automobile accident in 1992, was an inspiration to others and a model of professional service.

Award: $1,000 and a plaque donated by Congressional Quarterly, Inc. The jury is the LPSS Marta Lange/CQ Award Committee.

Criteria: Nominees should have achieved distinction in one or more of the following areas:

1. Planning and implementing a model bibliography/information services program in a law or political science library.
2. History of contributions to the field through research, publications and other activities displaying active participation in the advancement of law/political science librarianship.
3. Service to the profession through ACRL or related regional and national organizations.
4. Promotion or development of an education program for law and political science librarianship that has served as a model for other courses and programs.

Submission Procedure: Nominations should include: 1) a letter of nomination including your name, address and phone number as well as the name and address of the nominee; 2) narrative supporting the nomination; and 3) a current vita.

Individuals may nominate themselves or others. Send 5 copies to the LPSS Marta Lange/CQ Award Committee chair: Ronald Heckart, IGS Library, 109 Moses Hall #2370, University of California, Berkeley, CA 94720-2370. If you have any questions, call Heckart at (510) 643-6445.

Deadline: December 1, 1995

Instruction Section Innovation in Instruction Award

This annual award recognizes and honors librarians who have developed and implemented innovative approaches to instruction at their respective institutions.

Award: A citation presented by the Instruction Section Awards Committee.

Criteria: Recipients must have implemented their ideas in an academic or research library. The emphasis of this award is on creativity and innovation.

Eligibility: There are no restrictions as to the size of the instructional effort, academic discipline, target audience, or techniques employed. Recipients must have implemented their ideas in 1994 or 1995 for the award to be presented in 1996.

Submission Procedure: Nominations (letter and supporting documentation) should be submitted to the chair of the IS Awards Committee, Robert F. Rose, Rod Library, University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, IA 50613. For further questions or information, contact the chair at (319) 273-2737 or at Robert.Rose@uni.edu.

Deadline: December 1, 1995

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND RESEARCH

Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship

This award fosters research in academic librarianship by encouraging and assisting doctoral students in the field with their dissertation research.

Award: $1,000 cash and citation donated by the Institute for Scientific Information.

Eligibility: The recipient of the fellowship must meet the following qualifications:

1. Be an active doctoral student in the academic librarianship area in a degree-granting institution.
2. Have completed all coursework.
3. Have had a dissertation proposal accepted by the institution.
4. A recipient of the fellowship may not receive it a second time.
5. Applicant need not be an ACRL member.

Criteria: The proposal will be judged primarily on merit with emphasis on the following:

1. Potential significance of the research to the field of academic librarianship. (No attempt will be made to define academic librarianship but the subject should be consistent with topics usually published in College & Research Libraries or presented at ACRL meetings.)
2. Validity of the methodology and proposed methods of analysis.
3. Originality and creativity.
4. Clarity and completeness of the proposal.
5. Presentation of a convincing plan for completion in a reasonable amount of time.
6. Evidence of a continuing interest in scholarship such as a previous publication record.

Submission procedure: Qualified students who wish to be considered for the fellowship may apply by submitting a brief (ten pages or less double-spaced) proposal that includes the following:

1. Description of the research, including significance and methodology.
2. Schedule for completion.
3. Budget and budget justification for items for which support is sought. (Must be items for which no other support is available.) Examples of acceptable budget items are printing, computer time, fees to subjects, statistical consulting, photography, artwork, typing, and professional travel.
4. Name of dissertation advisor and committee members.
5. Cover letter from dissertation advisor endorsing the proposal.

An up-to-date curriculum vitae should accompany the proposal. Because of limits imposed by timing considerations, applications may be made for research under way, e.g., a student who begins research in the fall may apply for support for expenses incurred from the fall until the time the award is made.

Send eight copies of the nominating package (see general submission procedures on page 563).

Deadline: December 1, 1995.

Martinus Nijhoff International West European Specialist Study Grant

This grant supports research on Western European studies, librarianship, or the book trade.

Award: A maximum of 10,000 Dutch guilders (or U.S. dollar equivalent) donated by Martinus Nijhoff International, a subscription agent and book dealer with headquarters in The Netherlands. This study grant covers air travel to and from Europe, transportation in Europe, and lodging and board for no more than 14 consecutive days. Funds may not be used for salaries, research-related supplies, publication costs, conference fees, or equipment purchases.

Criteria: The primary criterion for awarding the grant is the significance and utility of the proposed project as a contribution to the study of the acquisition, organization, or use of library materials from or relating to Western Europe. Current or historical subjects may be treated. The award jury will review proposals with the following in mind:

a Librarian's life saver!

Spacesaver's high-density mobile systems can...

800-492-3434

1. What is the work to be accomplished? The proposal should be as explicit as possible about the current state of knowledge in the area and what will be achieved by the successful completion of the study.

2. What is the need for and value of the proposed research? The proposal should provide persuasive evidence that the study is of practical use or scholarly value to the wider community served by the grant.

3. What is the methodology for carrying out the proposed work? The research design should be as specific as possible and demonstrate why the European component is essential.

4. Is the work accomplishable within the time frame proposed? If the study extends beyond the 14-day limit of the grant, the proposal should specify how the additional work will be completed and funded.

5. Are the applicant's qualifications sufficient to carry out the study?

Submission procedure: Send six (6) copies of the application, which includes:

1. A proposal, five (5) pages or less, typed double-spaced.

2. A tentative travel itinerary not to exceed 14 days, including the proposed countries and institutions to be visited and the preferred period of study/travel.

3. A travel budget, including estimated round-trip coach airfare, transportation in Europe, lodging expenses, and meal costs.

4. A current curriculum vitae.

Send six copies of the nominating package (see general submission procedures on page 563).

Deadline: December 1, 1995.

Samuel Lazerow Fellowship for Research in Acquisitions or Technical Services in an Academic or Research Library

This award fosters advances in acquisitions or technical services by providing librarians a fellowship for travel or writing in those fields. Research projects in collection development or the compilation of bibliographies will not be supported by this fellowship.

Award: $1,000 cash and a citation donated by the Institute for Scientific Information.

Criteria: The proposals will be judged with an emphasis on the following:

1. Potential significance of the project to acquisitions or technical services work.

2. Originality and creativity.

3. Clarity and completeness of the proposal.

4. Evidence of an interest in scholarship, such as a previous publication record.

Submission procedure: Brief proposals (five pages or less, double-spaced) should include the following:

1. Description of research, travel, or writing project.

2. Schedule for project.

3. Estimate of expenses (e.g., professional travel, computer time, photocopying, typing.)

4. An up-to-date curriculum vitae should accompany proposal.

Recipients of the fellowship are required to submit a report on the results of their research for possible publication in C&RL News.

Send eight copies of the application (see general submission procedures on page 563).

Deadline: December 1, 1995.

PUBLICATIONS OR ARTICLES

Katharine Kyes Leab and Daniel J. Leab American Book Prices Current Exhibition Catalogue Awards

These awards recognize outstanding catalogues published by American or Canadian institutions in conjunction with exhibitions of books and/or manuscripts.

Award: A printed citation to the winning institutions organizing the exhibitions. Katharine Kyes Leab and Daniel J. Leab, American Book Prices Current, established an endowment to fund the awards.

Eligibility: Catalogues published by American or Canadian institutions in conjunction with an exhibition of books and/or manuscripts which has taken place or which is in progress before August 31, 1995, are eligible. Catalogues must be published between September 1, 1994, and August 31, 1995. The entries will be divided into three budget categories—expensive, moderately expensive, and inexpensive—based upon the production costs as outlined in the entry form. Catalogues may be of varying formats, styles, and scope, but each must represent an exhibition which has taken place. Catalogues may be intended for various types of audiences: e.g., scholars, students, general public. Catalogues may have various purposes: e.g., publicity, dissemination of information about a collection, attraction of donations, commemoration of a special occasion, etc.

Criteria: Catalogues will be judged on the level of accuracy and consistency of presentation, their clarity, quality of design, and usefulness to the intended audience.

Submission procedure: Four (4) copies of the catalogue must be submitted with an entry form (available from the chair of the committee) to the chair: Stephen Tabor, Clark Library, 2520 Cimarron, Los Angeles, CA 90018. All submissions will become the property of RBMS. If you have questions, call Tabor at (213) 731-8529.

Deadline: September 30, 1995.

K.G. Saur Award for Best Article in College & Research Libraries

This recognizes the most outstanding article published in College & Research Libraries (C&RL) during the preceding volume year.

Award: A citation and $500 cash to each author donated by K.G. Saur.

Eligibility: Articles published in C&RL during the preceding volume year.

Criteria: The winning article will be selected on the basis of originality, timeliness, relevance to ACRL areas of interest and concern, and quality of writing.

Submission procedure: Articles for C&RL may be submitted to the editor: Gloriana St. Clair, Assistant Dean for Access Services, E506 Pattee Library, Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802.

Rare Books & Manuscripts Librarianship Award

This award stimulates the contribution of articles of superior quality to the biannual ACRL journal Rare Books and Manuscripts Librarianship (RBML).

Award: $1,000 cash to an author and a citation donated by Christie, Manson & Woods.

Eligibility: Article published in RBML during the two preceding volume years. The next award will be given in 1997.

Criteria: The winning article will be selected on the basis of significance, originality, timeliness, thoroughness, and pertinence to issues relating to the theory and practice of special collections librarianship. Other criteria will include clarity of thought and expression.

Submission procedure: Articles for RBML may be submitted to the editor: Sidney Berger, University of California, Rivera Library, P.O. Box 5900, Riverside, CA 92517.

Instruction Section Publication Award

This annual award recognizes an outstanding publication related to instruction in a library environment published in the preceding two years.

Award: A citation presented by the Instruction Section Awards Committee.

Criteria: Publications are judged on the basis of relevance to the field of instruction in academic or research libraries, originality, timeliness, and quality of writing.

Eligibility: Publications include journal articles, books, and book chapters. Submitted publications may be authored by one or more individuals, a group, organization, or committee. Instruction Section publications are not eligible for consideration for the award. Publications from 1994 and 1995 will be considered for the award to be presented at the ALA 1996 Annual Conference.

Submission procedure: Send a complete citation for the publication with the nomination letter to: Robert F. Rose (committee chair), University of Northern Iowa, Rod Library, Cedar Falls, IA 50613-3675; (319) 273-2737

SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

Examples to Accompany Descriptive Cataloging of Rare Books

Prepared by the Bibliographic Standards Committee of the Rare Books and Manuscripts Section

"The introduction is clear, the bibliography useful, the indexes exhaustive and the records themselves painstakingly accurate. In short, it is a model of its kind, and should be consulted not only by those cataloguers currently using the code but also all managing librarians considering its adoption."—Rare Books Newsletter

ACRL APPROVAL PLANS

ACRL publications provide practical ideas, tools, and methods for: management, bibliographic instruction, special collections, collection development, statistics, and research. The convenient and cost-cutting ACRL approval order plan provides automatic priority shipping of ACRL's new books at a 20% discount to ACRL members (10% to nonmembers).

There are two approval plan categories from which to choose:

- Plan P guarantees that you will automatically be sent all new ACRL publications including CLIP Notes. ACRL publishes approximately 5 to 6 new titles each year.
- Plan PC is exclusively for titles in the CLIP Notes (College Library Information Packets) series. CLIP Notes collect data and sample documents from academic libraries to assist librarians in establishing or refining services and operations.

It's easy to enroll. Make your selection on the order form in this catalog. Or call or write the ACRL Publications Officer indicating the category you have chosen. ACRL/ALA, Approval Plan, 50 East Huron Street, Chicago, IL 60611; (800) 545-2433, ext. 2517
