ACRL Officers for 1976/77

Connie R. Dunlap

Connie R. Dunlap, university librarian at Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, will serve as president of the Association of College and Research Libraries for 1976/77. As president of ACRL, Dunlap chairs the ACRL Board of Directors, the ACRL Executive Committee, and the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1977 Annual Conference in Detroit. She also serves as a member of the Choice Editorial Board and as an ex-officio member of all other units of ACRL. As president of the division, Dunlap represents ACRL on the ALA Conference Program Committee for the Detroit Conference and on the ALA SCMAI Committee on Policy Implementation. Dunlap will also represent ACRL and ALA to other educational and professional organizations, such as the American Council on Education.

In addition to her tenure as vice-president/president-elect of ACRL during 1975/76, Dunlap's service to ACRL and ALA includes chairing the Clarence Day Award Jury in 1974/75, the Acquisitions Section of the ALA Resources and Technical Services Division, and the Organization Committee of RTSD. Dunlap served as president of RTSD in 1972/73. She has been a member of the ALA Council since 1974.

Eldred R. Smith, director of university libraries at the State University of New York at Buffalo, is the newly elected vice-president/president-elect of ACRL. In the recent elections, Smith received 1,192 votes. His opponent, Johnnie Givens, head librarian at Austin Peay State University, Clarksville, Tennessee, received 1,033 votes.

In the past, Smith has served ACRL as a member and chairman of the Committee on Academic Status and as chairman of the ACRL University Libraries Section. He has been a member of the ALA Standards Committee, the RTSD Library Materials Price Index Committee, and the Library Research Round Table. He is currently the chairman of, and one of ACRL's representatives to, the ACRL/Association of Research Libraries Joint Committee on University Library Standards.

As vice-president of ACRL, Smith will serve as a member of the ACRL Board of Directors, the ACRL Executive Committee, and the ACRL Planning Committee. He will chair the ACRL Conference Program Planning Committee for the 1978 Annual Conference in Chicago; and he will represent ACRL on the ALA Committee on Appointments, the ALA Budget Assembly, and the ALA Conference Program Committee for the 1978 conference. At the close of the 1977 Annual Conference, he will become ACRL's thirty-ninth president.

Jane G. Flener

Jane G. Flener, associate director of libraries for public services at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, and Pauline Atherton, professor at the School of Information Studies, Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, were recently elected to serve four-year terms as directors-at-large on the ACRL Board. Flener received 1,661 votes; Atherton, 956. Their opponents, Louis C. Moloney, director of the Learning Resources Center at Southwest Texas State University, San Marcos, Texas, and Thomas E. Strader, library director at Towson State College, Baltimore, Maryland, received 904 votes and 657 votes, respectively.

The results of the ACRL section elections follow. For each position, the elected candidate is listed first. The number of votes earned by each candidate is listed in parentheses.
