

News

4th International Conference on Evidence-based Library and Information Practice

Joanne Gard Marshall
Local Conference Chair
E-mail: marshall@ils.unc.edu

© 2006 Marshall. This is an Open Access article distributed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/2.0>), which permits unrestricted use, distribution, and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited.

Announcing the 4th International Conference on Evidence-based Library and Information Practice (EBLIP4), May 6-9, 2007 with additional continuing education events on May 10-11, Chapel Hill, North Carolina, USA

10-minute ride from the Raleigh Durham International Airport <http://www.rdu.com/>.

For further information contact: Joanne Gard Marshall, Local Conference Chair.
E-mail: marshall@ils.unc.edu

This exciting international conference has grown out of an increasing interest in using the best available evidence to improve library and information practice. The conference will be of interest to all sectors of the library and information community. It will offer an opportunity for presenting high quality research as well as discussing the role and future of evidence-based practice in the profession.

The conference is sponsored by the School of Information and Library Science at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill <http://www.ils.unc.edu/>. The site of the conference will be the Sheraton Imperial Hotel in nearby Research Triangle Park <http://www.sheratonrtp.com/>. The hotel is a