LEGAL TITLE

The legal title of the Paulist Fathers is The Missionary Society of St. Paul the Apostle in the State of New York.

Incorporation

This Society was legally incorporated by an act of the New York Legislature, March 24, 1870, under the name of The Missionary Society of St. Paul the Apostle in the State of New York. The petition for incorporation was signed by Fathers Isaac T. Hecker, Augustine F. Hewit, George Deshon, Alfred Young and Joshua P. Bodfish, for themselves, their associates and successors. The present trustees are the Superior General, the four General Consultors and the General Treasurer.

Popular Name

The members of this Society are ordinarily called the Paulist Fathers. In the Annuario Pontificio the name Paulist Fathers is printed as their recognized popular title. Likewise in the Decretum Laudis, granted by the Sacred Congregation of Religious, Paulist Fathers is given as the name by which they are commonly known.

ROME

(THE APOSTOLIC SEE)

Chiesa di Santa Susanna, 14 Via Venti Settembre, Rome (105).
Tel. 847-616.

The present Church of Santa Susanna was built in 1597. It rests upon the ruins of an earlier church, underneath which are relics of the house in which Susanna was martyred in the year 290 A. D.

A document signed by Cardinal Pompili, and approved by Pope Benedict XV, dated January 10, 1922, gives the Paulist Fathers charge of the Church.

Cardinal Bonzano was appointed Titular in 1924. He took possession of the title January 17, 1925, and publicly approved the appointment of the Paulist Fathers. At his death, Cardinal Lepicier became Titular, taking possession on January 26, 1928. He, in turn, approved the appointment of the local Superior of the Paulists as rector of the church. Cardinal Hinsley, Archbishop of Westminster, took possession of this title on the Feast of St. Thomas of Canterbury, 1938, and wrote a letter confirming the appointment of the Paulist Fathers.

The present Titular is His Eminence, Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, who took formal possession of the title of Santa Susanna on February 24, 1946.

The church building is a national monument, and no modification may be made without the permission of the Italian Government.

A Paulist Procura and House of Studies were established with the approbation of Benedict XV, in August, 1921.

PRIVILEGES GRANTED BY THE HOLY SEE

Members of the Society, both cleric and lay, may handle chalices, patens, corporals, and other sacred instruments.*

The Superior may erect oratories in the houses of the Society, provided the places have been visited and approved by the Ordinary.*

During Missions, Novenas, Retreats, etc., and in journeys connected with them, the Superior or his delegate may commute the Office into prayers not notably shorter than the Little Office, or a third part of the Rosary.*

They may do the same for those who are impeded by preaching, hearing confessions, sacred study, composition of books on sacred matters, or care of the sick, with the obligation, however, of reciting six psalms with as many Glorias, seven Pater Nosters, and two Credos.*

At Missions and similar exercises the Paulist Fathers may solemnly impart the Apostolic Blessing with a plenary indulgence. This Blessing is not to be given till after the days of the exercises are half concluded.*

The Sacred Congregation of Religious in rescript 5164-41 has given to the Superior General the right to grant dimissorial letters for a term of five years from September 12, 1941. Renewed to 1951. (Paulist Archives, New York.)

The Sacred Congregation of Rites has raised the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle to a double of the first class when celebrated in the churches and chapels of the Paulist Fathers. (Rescript in Paulist Archives, New York.)

The Sacred Congregation of Rites allows the Paulist Fathers to celebrate one sung or one low Mass of the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle on the Sunday following the Feast. (Rescript in Paulist Archives, New York.)

St. Catherine's Society

Each member of the Community has the privilege of registering the deceased members of his immediate family in the St. Catherine Society, thus ensuring them a perpetual remembrance in daily Mass.

* Privilege granted by Pope Pius IX, April 7, 1870. Rescript signed by Al. Card. Barnabo addressed to Father I. T. Hecker. (In Paulist Archives, New York.)

DECRETUM "NUPER NONNULLI"

(Translated from the Latin)

GRANTED BY

THE CONGREGATION OF BISHOPS AND REGULARS

Separation from the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer

Certain priests of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer in the United States of North America recently presented their most humble petition to our Most Holy Lord Pope Pius IX, that in view of certain special reasons he would grant that they might be withdrawn from the authority and jurisdiction of the Rector Major and be governed by a superior of their own, immediately subject to the Apostolic See, and according to the (Redemptorist) Rule approved by Benedict XIV, of holy memory. If, however, this should not be granted to them, they most humbly asked for dispensation from their vows in the said Congregation. After having carefully considered the matter, it appeared to His Holiness that a separation of this kind would be prejudicial to the unity of the Congregation and by no means accord with the Institute of St. Alphonsus, and therefore should not be permitted. Since, however, it was represented to His Holiness that the petitioners spare no labor in the prosecution of the holy missions, in the conversion of souls, and in the dissemination of Christian doctrine, and are for this reason commended by many bishops, it seemed more expedient to His Holiness to withdraw them from the said Congregation, that they might apply themselves to the prosecution of the works of the sacred ministry under the direction of the local bishops. Wherefore His Holiness by the tenor of this decree, and by his Apostolic authority, does dispense from their simple vows and from that of permanence in the Congregation the said priests, viz.: Clarence Walworth, Augustine Hewit, George Deshon, and Francis Baker, together with the priest Isaac Hecker, who has joined himself to their petition in respect to dispensation from the vows, and declares them to be dispensed and entirely released, so that they no longer belong to the said Congregation. And His Holiness confidently trusts that under the direction and jurisdiction of the local bishops, according to the prescription of the sacred Canons, the above-mentioned priests will labor by work, example, and word in the vineyard of the Lord, and give themselves with alacrity to the eternal salvation of souls, and promote with all their power the sanctification of their neighbor.

Given at Rome, in the office of the Sacred Congregation of Bishops and Regulars, the 6th day of March, 1858.

DECRETUM LAUDIS

(Translated from the Latin)

GRANTED BY

THE SACRED CONGREGATION OF RELIGIOUS

Approval of the Society and Temporary Approval of the Constitutions

The year of our Lord 1859 marked the beginning in the City of New York in the United States of North America, of the pious Society of Missionaries of St. Paul the Apostle, commonly called "Paulist Fathers," through the efforts and zeal of Reverend Father Isaac Thomas Hecker and his four associates, all of whom had been dispensed from the vow of perseverance in the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer by the Sovereign Pontiff Pius IX. Forthwith by the authority of the Ordinary of New York, their Mother House was established together with a Novitiate in the aforesaid city.

These priests proposed to themselves, besides the general purpose of attaining their own personal sanctification, the special purpose of working to promote the faith and piety of Catholic people, and especially to effect the conversion of those who are separated from Holy Mother the Church, by preaching the Word of God, by writing and publishing books and pamphlets, and in general by every kind of apostolic activity approved by Ecclesiastical Authority.

All the members of the Society lead a common life under the direction of a Superior General elected every six years. They take no vows, but upon the completion of their Novitiate simply promise, first, for a time, finally in perpetuity, that they will strive for Christian perfection, by observance of their Constitutions and of the Evangelical Councils, and that they will devote themselves to the labors of the Apostolic Ministry and to the duties entrusted to them.

When, with the Divine Blessing, and a notable increase of membership, the Society had established fourteen houses in several Dioceses, with the consent and even to the joy of Prelates over the subsequent abundance of salutary results, the Superior General with his Consultors humbly petitioned the Sovereign Pontiff Pius XI now gloriously reigning to grant approval with Apostolic Authority to this Institute and to its Constitutions. Therefore, His August Holiness by Divine Providence Pope Pius XI in an audience given to the Most Reverend Secretary of the Sacred Congregation in charge of the affairs of Religious Orders on July 13, 1929, having considered the commendatory letters of the Sacred Prelates in whose Dioceses the Society has houses, and having hearkened especially to the petition of their Eminences, the Most Reverend Cardinals of the Holy Roman Church, who are at the head of that Sacred Congregation and who had weighed the matter maturely at a plenary session held on the fifth of July in this year in the Vatican buildings, was pleased to praise with abundant compliments, and to commend this Society, under the rule of a Superior General. Besides he benignly approved and confirmed as an experiment for seven years, the Constitutions of this Society, written in Latin as contained in this copy—the original of which is deposited in the archives of this same sacred Congregation. As by this present Decree he praises and commends the Society itself, so he also approves and confirms its Constitutions as given above, with due regard to the jurisdiction of local Ordinaries in accordance with the Sacred Canons.

Given at Rome from the Secretariat of the aforesaid Sacred Congregation for the affairs of Religious on the 13th day of July, 1929.

DECRETUM

(Translated from the Latin)

GRANTED BY
THE SACRED CONGREGATION OF RELIGIOUS
Definitive Approval of the Constitutions

The Society of Missionary Priests of St. Paul the Apostle, whose Mother House is in the Archdiocese of New York, on July 13, 1929, obtained from the Holy See temporary approval of its Constitutions for the sake of trying them.

Since, however, the Society continues to abound in good works to the advantage of the Church, the Superior General with the approval of his Council has humbly requested from the Holy See the definitive approval of the Constitutions. His Holiness, by Divine Providence, Pope Pius XII, in an audience granted on December 17, 1940, to the Most Eminent Cardinal Prefect of the Sacred Congregation in charge of the affairs of Religious considering the letters of commendation of the Most Excellent Ordinaries in whose dioceses the houses of the Society are found, and having heard the judgment of the Commission of Most Reverend Consultors, benignly deigned to approve definitively, and to confirm, the Constitutions with certain changes and additions, according to the copy preserved in the archives of the aforesaid Sacred Congregation, so that by this Decree the said Constitutions are approved and confirmed, all things to the contrary notwithstanding.

Given at Rome from the Secretariate of the Sacred Congregation of Religious on the aforesaid day, month and year.

Given at Rome from the Secretariate of the Sacred Congregation of Religious on the aforesaid day, month and year.
